- Fermented in both stainless and French oak barrels

Chardonnay by the Bottle

Hendry, Barrel Fermented

Varietal: Chardonnay

Profile: Full

Appellation: Napa Valley, California

Aromas: soft floral, tropical

Flavors: soft, full, and fruity, integrated with oaky flavors and finishing with a pronounced tangy green apple acidity

Fun Facts:

- The wine is whole-cluster pressed and aged in new French oak barrels.
- It does not go through malolactic fermentation, to retain its food-friendly malic acidity

Cakebread

Varietal: Chardonnay

Profile: Medium

Appellation: Napa Valley, California

Aromas: pear, honeydew, and apple

Flavors: Citrus, apple, and mineral

Fun Facts:

- In 1973, Jack Cakebread went to Napa Valley to take photos for a book that he was putting together. While there, he mentioned to a friend that one day he would love to own his own vineyard. Later that afternoon, his phone rang from a friend willing to sell his vineyard. The rest is history!
- His last name, Cakebread, came from England where his ancestors were bakers of this popular dense, round loaf called “cakebrede.”

American Whites by the Glass

Fess Parker

Varietal: Riesling

Profile: Medium

Appellation: Santa Barbara, California

Aromas: Peach and apricot

Flavors: Peach, apricot, and melon aromas

Fun Facts:

- Fess Parker was an actor who starred in the Disney film as Davy Crockett, King of the Wild Frontier. He then filmed his network television about Daniel Boone.
- His second career was a real estate developer, and he built his first resort in Santa Barbara in 1986. He then purchased a ranch and established Fess Parker's Winery and Vineyard.

Mumm Brut Rose

Varietal: Pinot Noir, Chardonnay

Profile: Light/Dry

Appellation: Napa Valley, CA

Aromas: Ripe Strawberry

Flavors: Black cherries, red berries, and citrus followed by soft red fruit flavors

Fun Facts:

- A small amount of red Pinot Noir is added to the blend before bottling to create the beautiful pink-coral color
- The Brut Rose blend is comprised of the best grapes selected from up to 50 grower locations throughout the Napa appellation

American Whites by the Bottle

Unshackled

Varietal: Sauvignon Blanc, Viognier, Chenin Blanc, Roussanne

Profile: Light

Appellation: Napa Valley, California

Aromas: Gooseberry, lychee, white flowers, melon, peach and fresh citrus

Flavors: Crisp acidity, with soft but rich mouthfeel. Ripe pineapple, crisp pear and gooseberry finish

Fun Facts:

- The wine label replicates a cryptex, a puzzle device once solved opens to reveal a treasure. Unshackled wine bottles invite their drinkers to unlock the vino inside.
- While Unshackled consists of four different grape varieties, it is listed as a Sauvignon Blanc. This insinuates there is at least 75% Sauvignon Blanc grapes used in this blend.

Italian Whites by the Glass

Rocca

Varietal: Pinot Grigio

Profile: Light/dry

Appellation: Friuli, Italy

Aromas: Citrus, lemons

Flavors: Mineral, white flowers, citrus

- “Meiom” means “coast” in the native Wappo and Yuki tribe languages

Pinot Noir by the Bottle

Van Duzer

Varietal: Pinot Noir

Tier: 3rd

Body: Medium

Appellation: Willamette Valley, Oregon

Aromas: Bright and juicy red fruit

Flavors: Oak background with tannic structure with suggested notes of bourbon and vanilla

Fun Facts:

- Perched atop a knoll surrounded by vines on three sides, the site is situated in the gateway of the Corridor, a deep gap in the Oregon Coastal Range that draws brisk air from the Pacific Ocean into the Willamette Valley.
- The winery selected a zephyr, the gentle west wind of Greek mythology, as a symbol of the unique climate.

Benton-Lane

Varietal: Pinot Noir

Body: Light

Appellation: Oregon

Aromas: Cherries, red currants, raspberries, vanilla

Flavors: Fruitiness and lingering cherry and berry flavors balanced with tannins

Fun Facts:

- The winery was founded in 1988 by Steve and Carol Girard
 - Although they are originally from California, the founders chose Oregon because of the cooler climate, which is ideal for Pinot Noir grapes
- Benton-Lane produced Pinot Noir exclusively until 2003

Merlot by the Glass

Barone Fini

Varietal: Merlot

Tier: 1st

Body: Medium

Appellation: Trentino, Italy

Aromas: Cranberry and Red Fruits

Flavors: Rich, ripe cherries and plums.

Fun Facts:

- The Merlot is crafted from 100% handpicked grapes found alongside the northern banks of Lake Garda, Italy. Human intervention is limited throughout the process to produce a naturally fermented, incredibly elegant wine that is full-bodied and velvety smooth

Merlot by the Bottle

Coppola Blue

Varietal: Merlot

Tier: 2nd

Body: Full

Appellation: Napa, Sonoma, and Monterey, California

Aromas: Cherries, huckleberries, spiced wood, vanilla

Flavors: Red currants, plums, mocha, crème brulee

Fun Facts:

- Diamond collection wines are class California expressions that offer fruit-forward, multi-dimensional flavor
- The wine is 85% merlot, 15% petite sirah

Cabernet by the Glass

Stemmari

Varietal: Cabernet Sauvignon

Tier: 1st

Profile: Full

Appellation: Sicily, Italy

Aromas: Emergent notes of blackcurrant and ripe cherries that are well-integrated with inklings of spice that are derived from the refinement in wood

Flavors: Structure and powerful, with present tannins, but very delicate

Fun Facts:

- Louis Martini was the first winery to partner with Pinstripes for our wine dinners

Nickel & Nickel

Varietal: Cabernet Sauvignon

Body: Full

Appellation: Napa Valley, California

Aromas: Cassis, black cherry, and anise

Flavors: Plum, cherry, clove, minerals, and oak

Fun Facts:

- Gil Nickel, the founder of Nickel & Nickel (first vintage in 2000), was credited with restoring the Far Niente vineyards back in the late 1970's

Prior to running a vineyard, Gil was a guided missile analyst for the US Navy

Stags Leap, Artemis

Varietal: Cabernet Sauvignon

Body: Full

Appellation: Napa Valley, California

Aromas: Black cherries, red plum, violet, nutmeg, and sandalwood, with a hint of dried herbs

Flavors: Cherry and plum mixed with ripe berries

Fun Facts:

- Artemis is named after the Greek goddess of the hunt. It reflects on the hunt for the finest grapes from Napa Valley

American Reds by the Glass

Charles Smith, Boom Boom

Varietal: Syrah

Body: Medium

Appellation: Columbia Valley, Washington

Aromas: Fruit, earthy, spice

Flavors: Layers of red and black fruit, baking spice and earth

Fun Facts:

- Charles Smith is quite a character. He grew up in California, but moved to Europe, where he spent nine years managing rock bands and concert tours. Wining and dining while on the road became a catalyst for his passion for wine. He is a self-taught winemaker, and a pioneer in the wine world.
- The wines created by Charles Smith are intended to focus on the way people generally consume wine today – immediately. His wines are to be enjoyed now, but still exhibit the true typicity of both the varietal and vineyard.

Waterbrook

Varietal: Malbec

Profile: Full/dry

Cline Cellars

Varietal: Zinfandel

Profile: Medium/dry

Appellation: Lodi, California

Aromas: Dark berry fruit including black cherry and strawberry

Flavors: Spice notes with a lasting finish of vanilla, and supple tannins

Fun Facts:

- The grapes were de-stemmed and lightly crushed to preserve fruit and limit harsh tannin extraction
- Cline Cellars is family owned and practices sustainable farming

American Reds by the Bottle

Saldo

Varietal: Zinfandel Blend

Body: Medium

Appellation: California

Aromas: Black fruits and baked blueberry pie

Flavors: Dense concentration of flavor and smooth tannins with a peppery finish

Fun Facts:

- “Saldo” is of Latin origina and often refers to “from here and there,” or, in this case, representing the sourcing of Zinfandel from regions “from here and there” across Northern California
- The wine received 90 points from Wine Advocate in 2012

Chappellet Mountain Cuvee

Varietal: Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Cabernet Franc, Petit Verdot, Malbec

Flavors: Texture is smooth and lush, with lingering flavors of cherry and plum. There is ample weight and richness

Fun Facts:

- Since 1967, the Chappellets have been dedicated to extensive sustainable and organic practices. Their vineyard was certified organic in 2012.
- Cuvee means a type, blend, or batch of wine. It is a term used moreso with champagne

Quintessa

Varietal: Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Cabernet Franc, Malbec, Petit Verdot

Body: Full/Sweet

Appellation: Napa Valley, California

Aromas: Cherry, cassis, and olive

Flavors: Currant, anise and red spice

Fun Facts:

- This property was originally part of the Caymus land grant and then purchased by San Franciscan restaurateur George Mardikian, in 1940. George died in 1980, never fulfilling his dream of making premium wine.

The land was left there until 1990 when Agustin & Valeria Huneus purchased the property, then naming it “Quintessa.” They believed it would be the “quintessential” wine estate it was destined to become, due to the unique and distinct location of this property in Rutherford Hill.

The Prisoner

Varietal: Zinfandel, Cabernet, & Syrah

Profile: Full/dry

Appellation: Napa Valley, California

Aromas: Black cherry and smoky pepper

Flavors: Boysenberry, black cherry, and licorice

Fun Facts:

- “The Prisoner” is in reference to the 1973 movie called “Papillon,” which is another Orin Swift wine label. In this movie, Papillon is wrongly convicted of murder and after several escape attempts, he was put in solitary confinement. “The Prisoner” is an image of that scene.

Italian Reds by the Glass

Castello Trebbio

Varietal: Chianti

Body: Medium

Appellation: Tuscany, Italy

Aromas: Small red berries with hints of flowers and spice

Flavors: Well-balanced with velvety tannins

Fun Facts:

- “Castello” means “castle,” and the vineyard owners still live in the historic castle on the estate
- Instead of machinery, horses are used to plow between the vineyards, so that there is no pollution
- Each of the squares on the label is a drawing that represents part of the history of the vineyard

Other Reds by the Bottle
